

NEWS from Congressman Steve Israel

News Advisory 111-163
For Planning Purposes
May 17, 2010

For more information, contact:
Lindsay Hamilton 202-225-3335
lindsay.hamilton@mail.house.gov

News Advisory

Rep. Israel Brings Max Cleland, Secretary of the American Battle Monuments Commission, Former Senator and Distinguished Veteran, to the American Airpower Museum for a Discussion with LI Veterans
Secretary Cleland will discuss his role as Secretary of the American Battle Monuments Commission and speak on related veterans issues

Farmingdale, NY – On Tuesday, Rep. Steve Israel (D – Huntington) brings the Honorable Max Cleland, Secretary of the American Battle Monuments Commission, to the American Airpower Museum for a discussion with Long Island veterans. Secretary Cleland, a former Georgia Senator and Combat Wounded Vietnam Veteran and Silver Star Recipient, will talk about the future of the American Battle Monuments Commission and veterans issues.

WHO: The Honorable Max Cleland, Secretary of the American Battle Monuments Commission; Rep. Steve Israel (D – Huntington); Long Island Veterans

WHAT: Rep. Steve Israel (D – Huntington) brings the Honorable Max Cleland, Secretary of the American Battle Monuments Commission, to the American Airpower Museum for a discussion with Long Island veterans

WHEN: 10:30AM – 12:00PM, Tuesday, May 18, 2010

WHERE: American Airpower Museum, 1230 New Highway, Farmingdale, NY 11735

###